

□□□□□□□□ 15 □□□□

15

California Proposition 65, also known as the Safe Drinking Water Act, is a law that requires businesses to provide information about the presence of certain chemicals in their products. The law is designed to help consumers make informed decisions about the products they buy. The law is a key part of California's environmental protection efforts.

□ □ □ □ □ □ □

Cupwind □□□□□□□□□□

opp 24 48 72 144

[illegible]

