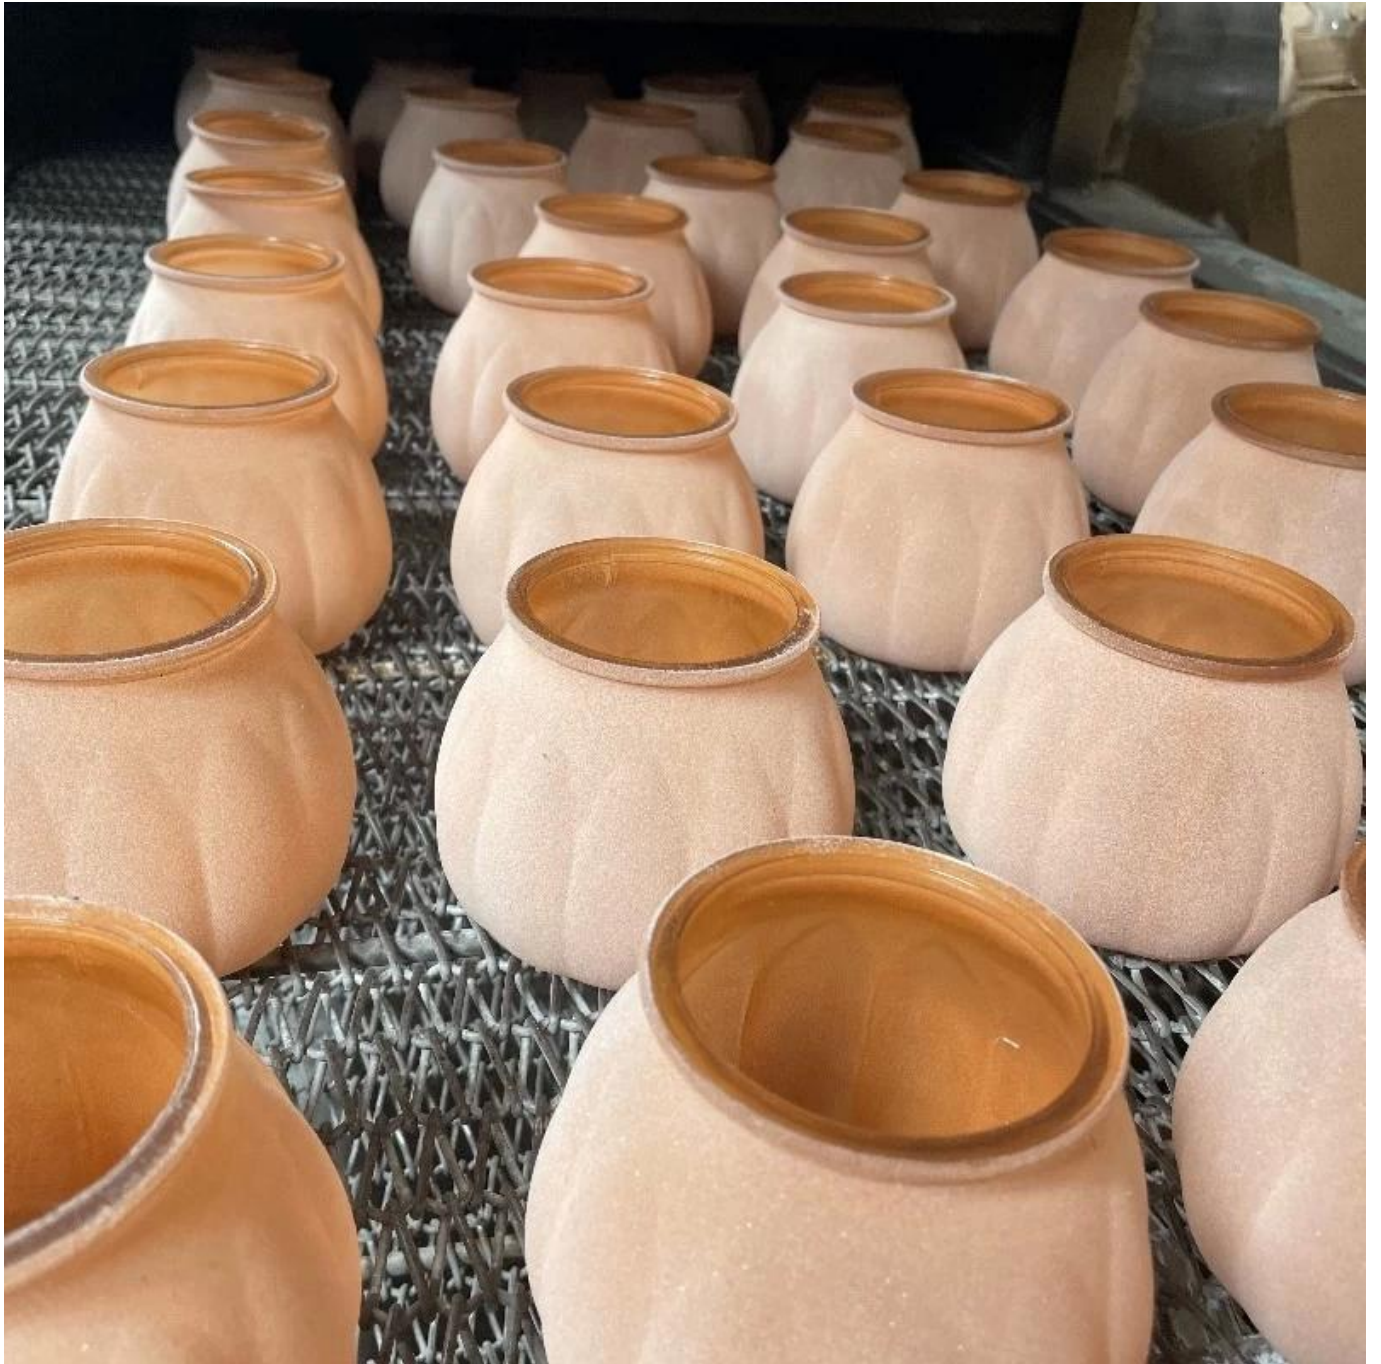

Figure 15: A clear glass jar with a lid. The jar is empty and has a lid. The lid is a simple, flat, circular piece of glass that fits snugly over the top of the jar. The jar itself is made of clear glass and has a rounded, bulbous shape. The bottom of the jar is slightly wider than the top, giving it a classic, functional appearance. The lid is positioned on top of the jar, and the entire assembly is centered in the image.
