

Product Highlights:

Materials and workmanship: Made of ceramic material, the surface has a vertical stripe texture design, the overall shape is cylindrical, and the color is gentle pink, combining texture and beauty.

Functional adaptability: As a container, it can be used with powdered candles (such as "pearl granular candle powder"). Users only need to pour the candle powder into the jar and place the wick to light it, which supports flexible replacement of candle types.

Combining decoration and practicality: Private label refillable candle jars China—In addition to being used as a candle container, its simple design can be used as a home decoration to enhance the style of the space, especially suitable for creating a warm atmosphere.
